

All tenses - revision

Task: open the brackets:

I once (know) _____ a village teacher who (be) _____ particularly blind. He (lose) _____ one eye as a result of an infection. His blind eye (take out) _____ and a glass one (insert) _____ in its place.

One day the teacher (need) _____ to leave his class of small children alone for half an hour or so. However, he (hold) _____ back by one reason. The children in this class (be) _____ mischievous. He (know) _____ that if they (leave) _____ alone for any length of time, they (become) _____ violent and complaints (make) _____ by their parents.

Suddenly he (strike) _____ any an idea. In a moment his glass eye (take out) _____ and (place) _____ on the table.

“Now, children, I (go) _____ out for a few minutes but you (observe) _____ all the time by my eye. If anything (do) _____ which (not approve) _____ by me, it (see) _____ by my eye and the child (punish) _____ when I (return) _____.”

Task: open the brackets:

The children (be) _____ impressed very much and the teacher (go out) _____.

However, when he (return) _____ an hour later, it (seem) _____ that a hurricane (pass) _____ through the classroom. The teacher (surprise) _____.

“Obviously, I (outwit) _____”.

The children (overturn) _____ the tables and the walls (spray) _____. It was obvious that good time (have) _____ by all.

The teacher (wonder) _____ why the presence of his glass eye (not respect) _____. But a minute later he (know) _____. When he (turn round) _____ to look for his eye, he (see) _____ that it (cover) _____ with a hat.